

NORWEGIAN CHURCH AID
actalliance

Norwegian Church Aid (NCA) is a faith based Norwegian NGO working for global justice. In line with our mandate as a policy office for Southern Africa and to develop our partner portfolio and program on climate change we are now recruiting a

POLICY OFFICER ON CLIMATE JUSTICE

The position is based in Brooklyn, Pretoria and reports to the Area Representative. The policy officer will be focused on supporting partners engaged in advocacy on climate change adaptation and mitigation, including energy access for the poor. Key responsibilities will include building relationships with partners, networking with stakeholders and the strategic development, monitoring, evaluation and follow-up of partners and programs/projects.

Applicants should have a relevant Master's degree and strong proven experience in an international NGO, dealing with Climate Change issues and having connections with, or knowledge of, Climate Change networks at regional, continental and global levels. Proven advocacy skills, the ability to operate at a strategic level, either independently or as part of a team and a good understanding of the development sector are also essential. Only candidates with South African citizenship or permanent residence will be considered.

Please view the full job description and application instructions on the Vacancies page at www.actionappointments.co.za and email your application by Monday 13th February 2012 to lisa@actionappointments.co.za

